GRADUATES

We congratulate all of our young people who graduate this June from our High Schools, Colleges and special institutions of learning. We wish them God's richest blessings as they begin their life work or continue their education.

LECTIONARIES

In all of the pews of our Church are beautifully bound lectionaries which include the full text of all of our Sunday scripture lessons. The congregation is urged to follow silently the reading of the lessons.

Many want to place memorials in the Church for loved ones but are not always able to contribute large sums of money for this purpose. Here is a wonderful opportunity to remember a loved one by contributing $3 for each lectionary. Please send your contribution to the Church Office designating this purpose and an attractive label will be placed on the inside cover, showing the name of the loved one memorialized and the name of the donor. Perhaps many will want to give more than one book.

CARL WILLIAM FOLKEMER

is a son of the late Mr. Paul I. Folkemer and Mrs. Folkemer, and a ministerial son of Christ Church. He was educated at Gettysburg College, as well as Gettysburg Seminary. At the latter institution, he received the degrees of Bachelor of Divinity and later, Master of Sacred Theology. In 1963 his College Alma Mater honored him by conferring upon him the degree of Doctor of Divinity. Upon graduation from Seminary, Dr. Folkemer was ordained into the ministry of the United Lutheran Church in America and served as the Assistant Pastor at Luther Place Memorial Church, Washington, D.C. Grant him wisdom from above, fill his heart with holy love; in all weakness be Thou near him, in his prayers, Good Shepherd, hear him. Help, Lord Jesus, help him nourish our dear children with Thy Word, that in constant love they serve Thee till in heaven their song is heard. Boundless blessings, Lord, bestow on his faithful toil below, till by grace to him is given, his reward, the crown of heaven."

Christ Lutheran Church

Baltimore, Maryland

CARL WILLIAM FOLKEMER is Christ Church's first "home-grown" pastor. His parents—Paul Israel and Anna Laura (Becker) Folkemer—were active members of Christ Church. Carl was baptized by our first pastor, Dr. Leander M. Zimmerman, in 1916. He was confirmed by our second pastor, Dr. Oscar F. Blackwelder, in 1929. He and Ruth Ann Morganthall—also a member of Christ Church—were married by our third pastor, Dr. John L. Deaton, in 1942. As a young person, Carl participated actively in the Church School, Boy Scout and Luther League programs of the congregation.

He attended the public schools of Baltimore City, graduating from the "A" Course at Baltimore City College in 1934. He graduated with honors from Gettysburg College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1937; and from the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg with a Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1940. He earned his Master of Sacred Theology degree from the Seminary in 1946. He pursued his studies for a doctorate degree at Union Theological Seminary in New York. In 1963, his alma mater, Gettysburg College, conferred on him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity.

Dr. Folkemer has spent his entire ministry in the Maryland Synod where he was ordained in 1940. He served as Assistant Pastor of Luther Place Memorial Church in Washington, D.C. for two years. In 1942, he was called to be pastor of St. John's Church in Linthicum Heights. Shortly after becoming pastor, he led the congregation to undertake the unique project of constructing a new church building with the members supplying practically all of the labor. Under his leadership the nave of St. John's Church was later enlarged and a complete educational building and children's chapel added to it. In 1965, he became the fifth Senior Pastor of Christ Church.

Dr. Folkemer has contributed to the ministry of the Lutheran Church in America as an instructor in Church History for twelve years at the Lutheran Deaconess School in Baltimore; as a contributor to the "Luther's Works" series (Volume 31); as a member of various committees and boards of the Maryland Synod; as Secretary and Dean of the Baltimore-West District of the Synod.

In his seventeen years at Christ Church, he has been first and always a pastor to his people. He has preached the Gospel with energy and vision. Soon after becoming pastor of Christ Church he recognized the need for better nursing home facilities in Baltimore. This coincided with the city's announced plans to renovate the inner harbor. Christ Church was allotted a parcel of land for the development of a complex of buildings to serve the public. Through Dr. Folkemer's tireless and inspired leadership, the John L. Deaton Medical Center, the Harbor Place Apartments and the Parking Garage became realities. He has ably served as Chairman of the Board of all three of these congregation-related corporations. In 1976, he inaugurated the Tuesday morning Intercessory Prayer and Spiritual Healing Services which have proved to be a blessing for many.

It is most appropriate for us to pause for reflection, memory and thanksgiving for such a man of God. But Carl W. Folkemer—in forty-two years of Gospel ministry—was not and is not a man of backward looks, but a man of vision, a servant of his Lord, an outstanding pastor of the Lutheran Church in America.

"How welcome are those who come preaching God's Good News!"
(Isaiah 52:7, Romans 10:15)

A Tribute to Carl Folkemer

Today we gather in this hall
To pay our tribute one and all;
Dr. Folkemer is his name,
And we shall spread abroad his fame.

Born long ago in Baltimore,
His years now make five and three score;
But though his hair has grown quite gray
"He's young at heart," his flock will say.

He's fond of telling you and me
"Baptized was I by L.M.Z.,
Confirmed quite well by O.F.B.,
And wed - you're right! - by J.L.D."

To City College did he go,
Nor was he in his lessons slow;
Then called by God the Church to serve
To Gettysburg he went with verve.

Our young C.F., now ably trained,
Was in the Lutheran Church ordained;
In Washington he spent two years
To turn out dry behind the ears!

In forty-two his life did change,
A wife he took, to things arrange;
In time there came to Carl and Ruth
Three children fine - I tell the truth!

To Linthicum he went that year,
St. John's would come to hold him dear;
He built the church with might and main
Nor were his labors e'er in vain.

Long years went by; at Charles and Hill
They sought for one their church to fill;
To Carl they called, "Our minds are set,
Come, lead 'The Church You Can't Forget'!"

And so he came - fifth son of theirs -
To preach the Word, to soothe their cares;
He had a vision strong and clear,
To help the aged, the sick to cheer.

In time the dream he had came true:
Deaton was born, apartments too.
The city saw with pleasure keen
An Inner Harbor fresh and clean.

And at the church he's loved so well,
His helpers at the task I tell -
For no one man can do it all,
If that were so, the Church would fall!

There's Eva, Paul and Frank, you see,
Fred, Velma, Ernie - they make three;
And Rosie Timm and Gloria too
Nor can we skip our Mary Lou!

Assistants there have been so far -
Long, Goetz, and Williamsen's guitar!
Phil Fogarty, Jus Liesmann, too -
And Mack - give the devil his due!

And there are many we can't name,
A host of workers Carl can claim!
He's grateful now to one and all
That they have sped to heed God's call.

Lest we forget, there's one thing more,
So don't too quickly nod and snore!
Five years ago Carl heard the call
Of Jesus Christ, "Go heal them all!"

And so we have a time of prayer
For those oppressed by pain and care;
To Children's Chapel they come in
To rid themselves of ills and sin.

We've come at last to poem's end,
With praise for pastor, leader, friend
And so we say with hearts sincere,
"God bless you,Carl, from year to year

DEDICATION OF JOHN L. DEATON MEDICAL CENTER

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Our help is in the name of the Lord.

Response: Who made heaven and earth.

Let us pray-

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with thy most gracious favor, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy name. Amen.

Psalm 24 (Read responsively)

The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof: the world, and they that dwell therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas: and established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord: or who shall stand in his holy place?

He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart: who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive the blessing from the Lord: and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek him: that seek thy face, O God of Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory: the Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, even lift them up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory: the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Peace be to this house of healing.

Response: And to all that enter therein.

The Lord be with you.

Response: And with thy spirit.

Let us pray-

O God, many will enter this place for healing, for comfort, for peace of mind and spirit. Many will be lonely, in physical pain, in despair, in need of thy healing power both physically, emotionally and spiritually. Grant to all who labor here and visit here the sincere desire to serve the needs of mankind. By thy grace grant to them skill, patience, understanding and compassionate love. Keep ever before us all, the will to preserve the dignity of human personality. For those whom we serve grant the full measure of faith, courage and hope. May they feel each day the everlasting arms of God beneath them, and the presence of God's Spirit to strengthen them. Help us never to become weary in well-doing or ever dispassionate or unconcerned in our service to those in need of our help. Make us by thy grace living witnesses of thy loving care. Guard us constantly from treating any patient as less than a child of God. To these ends guide and strengthen us in all our service to thy people. Amen.

Blest and dedicate be this John L. Deaton Medical Center to the glory and honor of Almighty God, to the healing and helping ministry of all who labor here and to the increase of faith and courage and hope to all who enter these walls to be served.

Now may the Lord bless you and keep you; may his face shine upon you and be gracious unto you; may the Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace.

Response: Amen, Amen, Amen.

Processional Hymn: ..... (congregation standing)

"Mine Eyes Have Seen The Glory"

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of his terrible swift sword:
His truth is marching on.

Glory, glory, Hallelujah!
Glory, glory, Hallelujah!
Glory, glory, Hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men before his judgment seat;
O be swift, my soul, to answer him; be jubilant, my feet!
Our God is marching on.

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in his bosom that transfigures you and me:
As he died to make men holy, let us die to make men free,
While God is marching on.

"Through all the world below God is seen all around; Search hills and valleys through, there He's found. The lily and the thorn, the pleasant and forlorn all declare, 'God is there'; In meadows drest in green, there He's seen. See springs of water rise, fountains flow, rivers run, the mist below the skies hides the sun; Then down the rain doth pour, the ocean it doth roar and dash against the shore, all to praise in their lays His designs. The sun, to my surprise, speaks of God as he flies; The comets in their blaze, give Him praise. The shining of the stars, the moon as it appears, His sacred name declares, see them shine, all divine! The shades in silence prove God's above."

Benediction

Recessional Hymn: "My Country 'Tis Of Thee"

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing:
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God, to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King.
Amen.

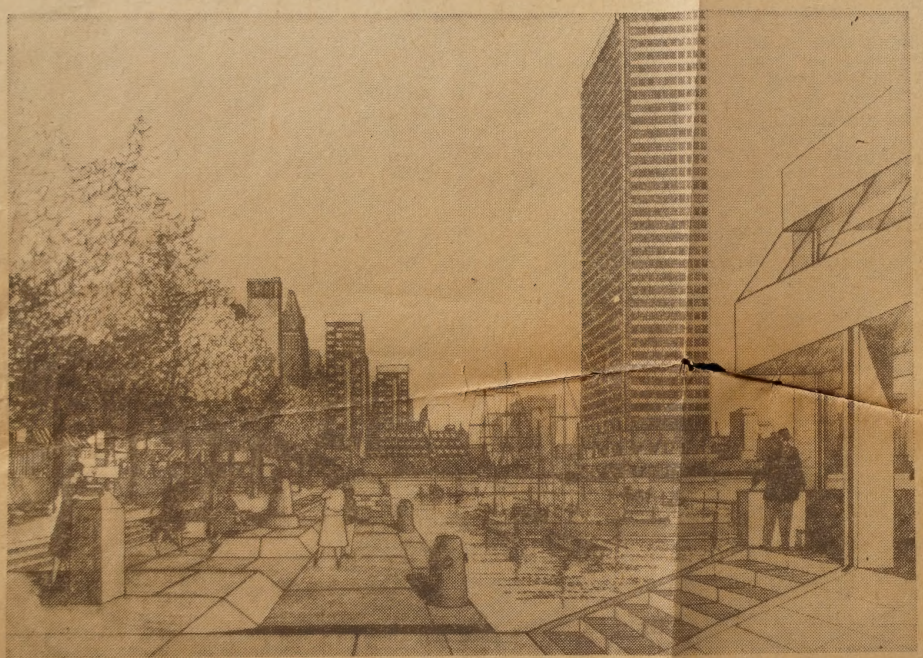
Inner Harbor Blueprint Unveiled



BALTIMORE'S FUTURE INNER HARBOR, IF LOAN IS APPROVED

McKeldin Asks Voters OK $12 Million Loan

By JERRY ADLER

• The News American urges voters to approve the $12,000,000 Inner Harbor Loan on election day, Nov. 8.

The final blueprint for a first, $100 million face-lifting of the inner harbor was unveiled yesterday by Mayor McKeldin as he called for voter-approval of a $12 million loan to launch it.

Inner harbor development has been a pet project of the mayor ever since he began his second term in 1963.

There are three major changes in the plan that was announced over a month ago.

The boundary has been enlarged to include McCormick & Co., which will stay and may expand, and Federal Tin and Products Co., a block south of McCormick's, which may move to another city location.

THE SITE FOR a garage to service the new World Trade Center, a $10 million, 20-story Maryland Port Authority structure, has been moved slightly eastward, to Commerce and Gay Sts.

A $6 million science center, which will be allowed first call on an additional $4 million expansion, has been moved from the southwest corner of Pratt and Light Sts. to a diagonally opposite location at the juncture of the inner harbor, Light St. and Key Highway.

And the internal arrangement of a development by Christ Lutheran Church has been changed physically within the same area at the southwestern edge of Light and Hughes Sts.

Piers One and Two will go. The mayor wants the Constellation moored where these piers now stand, on a dry dock, but Congress may decide to place the historic vessel at Ft. McHenry.

WHERE THE SCIENCE center was originally to go, at the southwest corner of Pratt and Light Sts., there will now rise about 700 apartment units at two high-rise, 15 to 20 stories, and two medium-rise, about six-story, apartment buildings. A fountain is slated in this apartment complex.

Along Light St., about half way between Pratt St. and Key Highway, a marina-boatel is slated, including a minimum of 100 boat slips.

So that the 2,000 yachts which run along the coast can have easy access to the inner harbor,

State PTA Congress Faces Election Fight

By KENNETH J. RABBEN

Maryland's Congress of PTAs opens its annual two-day convention here Thursday and for the first time in the organization's 51-year history, a floor fight for officers is expected.

There is an official, already nominated slate of officers and an opposing slate to be nominated from the floor during the meeting at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

In addition to politics, representatives of the 288,000-member organization will vote on important by-law changes designed to streamline the organization.

ONE CHANGE would raise local and state dues each a nickle, from five to 10 cents a member to the National Congress and 15 to 20 cents to the state organization. This is expected to be hotly contested.

At the same time, the organization is expected to push for the multi-million-dollar state-financed kindergarten program.

Other proposed changes would remove the 25 county and Baltimore City PTA district vice presidents from the board of managers to make the board more manageable and to save expenses. Another proposal would adopt the "one-man, one-vote" reapportionment proposal in electing congress delegates.

THE CONGRESS will reaffirm its stand on legislative issues, with no changes expected from previous years. Behind-the-wheel training for driver education students will be requested.

Friday at 2 P. M. the state gubernatorial candidates will speak, except Democrat George P. Mahoney, who turned down the congress invitation.

Keynote speaker Thursday morning is Dr. Geneva Flickinger, Maryland's adult education supervisor. Another highlight will be a panel Friday morning on youth problems.

But the main event will be the election of officers.

OFFICIAL NOMINEES are Mrs. Martin M. Puncke of Howard County, president; John J. Lancaster Jr. from Prince Georges County, first vice president; Mrs. Lester B. Reed of Allegany County, secretary, and Mrs. Robert E. Hampson of Baltimore City, treasurer.

Expected to be nominated from the floor, with support from Prince Georges, Anne Arundel and Montgomery counties, are Mrs. John D. (Freddie) Loizeaux of Baltimore County, president and Bruce Bowman [illegible]

'They're Paying Too Much'

Women Launch Food Boycott

By CORINNE F. HAMMETT

All it took was the determination of one young mother of two children

food stores being in the audience. People taking notes (like me) were pointed out. Others wondered if "The Press" would publicize the boycott. "A spokesman for the general press" (from a magazine I never heard of) cleared that up—he said: "Yes."

Then the man who was "no lady" shouted: "If we're going out on a limb, let's go all the way. Let's boycott all chain stores. If we're not going to take a gamble, we're wasting our time"

No one wanted to be accused of that.

MRS. STILLWELL commented: "It's good to have a man here," and then asked for names of chain stores whose high prices have offended area food shoppers.

The names, Giant, Safeway, A & P, Acme, Food Fair, Eddy's, Penn Fruit, Big Valu, Pantry Pride, Seven-Eleven, Sanitary, were cheered in respect to their popularity or otherwise.

Some women wondered if, as in Denver, where women "left produce to rot on the shelves in groceries all over town," shoppers could go into the chain stores to buy only the specials."

Baltimore housewives apparently are easy prey for tasteful arrays of foodstuffs. The group decided "we better just stay out of the stores—it's too easy to pick up other items once we are inside."

A STEERING COMMITTEE was selected from volunteers for the purpose of checking on food prices, negotiating with store spokesmen, and spreading "the word" among area shoppers.

One woman wondered: "What if it doesn't work?"

Mrs. Stillwell's prompt answer was "If it doesn't work, we haven't lost a thing. I'll be embarrassed; you can all pretend you weren't here."

Since then, the committee has
